

So, for three months there wasn't much of a Winter, and we were in the 60's in early February. Then cold weather finally arrived with a vengeance and we got hit with the mother of all blizzards...which turned out to be a big nothing!! Totally crazy!! But now it's officially Spring and that can only mean one thing...the 2017 Oil Heat Institute of L.I. "End of This Pretty Damned Weird Winter Day of Golf" is right around the corner!!!

So mark your calendars, get in your reservations and plan to attend on
